

Saynday Kiowa Indian Children's Stories

MODINA M. (TOPPAH) WATERS
with illustrations by Sister Marcianne Kappes

KIOWA KIDS

is pleased to announce the publication of Saynday Kiowa Indian Children's Stories by:

Modina (Toppah) Waters

Published by Sam Noble Museum/University of Oklahoma with assistance from the Endangered Language Fund, this fully illustrated, full color, bilingual children's book contains three Saynday (Kiowa trickster) stories as told by Modina's mother, the late Lucille Ataddlety-Toppah In an engaging and easy read format for all ages.

Saynday Kiowa Indian Children's Stories is a great and unique resource for individuals, families, daycares, schools, libraries, cultural centers, and various retail outlets from gift shops to bookstores.

All costs include shipping and handling.

Please allow two weeks for delivery.

1-19 copies $20.00 each

20-39 copies $19.00 each

40-79 copies $18.00 each

80+ copies $17.00 each

Please make out check or money order only to

KIOWA KIDS and send to:

KIOWA KIDS

1917 Pelham Circle

Norman, OK 73071

www.kiowakids.net

ALL PROCEEDS FROM THE SALE OF THE BOOK GO DIRECTLY TOWARDS KIWALANGUAGE COMMUNITY
TEACHING AND EVENTS FOCUSED ON YOUTH!
SUPPORT THIS WORTHWHILE EFFORT!